2024 | World Telecommunication Day 17/5
International Museum Day 18/5

The Telecommunications Museum celebrates International Museum Day and World Telecommunications Day with creative and entertaining activities for everyone inside and outside the Museum. Activities inspired by this year's message linking education and research with entertainment, personal expression and co-creation.

We visit the SOS Children's Villages and the Children Support Centre of Elefsis to play a fun group game of knowledge and observation, inspired by and based on the research work of the Museum's scientific team on the ways of communication in Greek antiquity.

The 1st floor is transformed into a theatre, where the performance "For more laughter stay on the line!" inspired by the story of the telephone operators of the telephone company OTE. In a storytelling workshop we become Messengers and send a telegram to the goddesses of antiquity... A real juggler is in the museum and through acrobatics, juggling with balls and pins, we experience a magical journey through juggling and telecommunications. In the new education room on the 2nd floor, in the STEM robotics and engineering workshops we build robot runners and moving windmills.

In the courtyard of the Museum in Nea Kifissia is the Food truck canteen for coffee and quality street food, while the Mixed Choir of OTE Athens takes us on a journey into the world of musical creation.

“For more laughter stay on the line” | Theatrical Performance by the Theatrical Group Chiliodentri

📍 At the Museum

🕒 11.30-13.00

👤 8-13 years old

The Museum is transformed into a theatre! With a telephone operator from the 1970s as the main protagonist, we are directly connected to stories taken from real and fictional telephone conversations of another era, inspired by the book by Zaneta Vlachouta & “Please connect me with laughter”.

Guided Group Tour

📍 At the Museum

🕒 13.30-14.30

👤 Adults and children +10 years old

A guided tour of the renovated exhibition spaces on the 1st and 2nd floor, using new technologies and digital media, makes the journey into the world of communication exciting!

► SUNDAY 19 MAY

Happy Runner | STEM Workshop

📍 At the Museum

🕒 10.30-12.00

👤 6-9 years old

The “Happy Runner” workshop combines Stem Education, Technology & Engineering in an interactive and entertaining way! How important is the speed at which a message travels...even in ancient times messengers were very important people, as they travelled long distances to safely and quickly deliver a message. Inspired by the messengers of the antiquity, we build a robot runner together!

Moving Windmills | Stem Workshop

📍 At the Museum

🕒 12.30-14.00

👤 10-12 years old

The “Moving Windmills” workshop combines Stem Education, Technology & Robotics in an interactive and entertaining way! At the flick of a switch today we have electricity! But it wasn't always so...

I wonder how we got to today's technology? We are learning to build together a model of a working wind turbine that generates electricity by blowing its wing.

“A Juggler at the Museum” | Museum Educational Activity

📍 At the Museum

🕒 11.00-12.30

👤 All ages

A juggler meets you at the Museum for a magical ride! Acrobatics, juggling with balls, pins and glowing objects by a real juggler, delivering telegrams on “unicycle” bicycles, will make your ride unforgettable!

Through an original combination of juggling and telecommunications, experience magical museum moments!

Guided Group tour
